

To Whom It May Concern:

For the last seven years I have had the privilege of having the Matt Brown Trio play at my restaurant Del Mar in Chatham, Massachusetts. I cannot speak highly enough about Matt. He is a fabulous musician and always has equally good musicians playing with him. Matt's trio plays a large selection of tunes that engage the audience. The quality of their playing is excellent. They are also conscious of the volume as many of our guests are dining. Our guests take a high interest in the summer music season at the restaurant and Matt's trio is always in high demand.

In short, I highly recommend the Matt Brown Trio for you entertainment needs. They are extremely reliable and offer superb entertainment. Please feel free to call me with any questions.

Sincerely,

John Zartarian
